About WAGNER

The WAGNER group of companies under the roof of Wagner International AG is one of the worldwide leading manufacturers of equipment and systems for the application of wet and powder coatings and also paints and other liquid media onto surfaces. Since the foundation of the first enterprise in Friedrichshafen, Germany, more than 75 years ago, WAGNER has been setting standards in terms of quality and innovative technologies, offering economical, reliable and user-friendly solutions to industrial companies, contractors and home improvement enthusiasts. Wagner International AG, with headquarters in Altstätten, Switzerland, is both a manufacturer and the holding company for all companies belonging to WAGNER. The group is represented by approximately 2000 employees, 18 operating companies and around 400 international WAGNER agencies. The WAGNER Group of companies is owned by the Josef Wagner Foundations, which pursue exclusively not for profit charitable goals.
